

INTELLIGENT INTERIORS

Three jurors from across the country were invited in May to judge this year's crop of the best in education design. In determining citation winners, the jury considered these criteria:

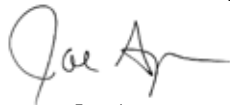

- Innovation
- Adaptability/flexibility
- Sensitivity to community and context
- Transparency
- Timelessness
- Blending of indoor/outdoor space
- Sustainability and maintenance
- Effectiveness in meeting program requirements
- Repurposing and reuse of space
- Indoor environmental quality (use of lighting, daylighting, furniture, acoustics and HVAC)

Kim Bauer

August F. Battaglia

Joe Agron

WHAT THE JURY SAID

"Vibrant. Inspiring. Childlike without being childish. Great job of blending inside with outside learning spaces. Exceptional learning environment." p. 16-17

"Incredible transformation and reuse of space. Exceptional use of lighting to vary the mood. This is what a college dining experience should entail." p. 18-19

"Great learning environment. Fun spaces for kids to gather, explore, study and more!" p. 20

"Unique, sophisticated spaces. Simple, modern use of color inside a traditional building." p. 21