Receive national acclaim for YOUR EDUCATION DESIGN PROJECTS

Enter American School & University magazine's Architectural Portfolio.

For forty-two years, the Architectural Portfolio has been the industry's most recognized awards program for education design excellence. Published in cooperation with the American Institute of Architects, this prestigious competition celebrates architects and education institutions for their achievements in outstanding school and university design. Enter your projects for the chance to be included in this design sourcebook from American School & University.

"... browse the pages as you would an architectural exhibit, stopping to note projects that capture your attention."

Editor's note in the inaugural Architectural Portfolio issue, 1983

2023 GRAND PRIZE WINNERS

WILLIAM W. CAUDILL CITATION

The Branch School, Hightower Middle School

■ Kirksey Architecture

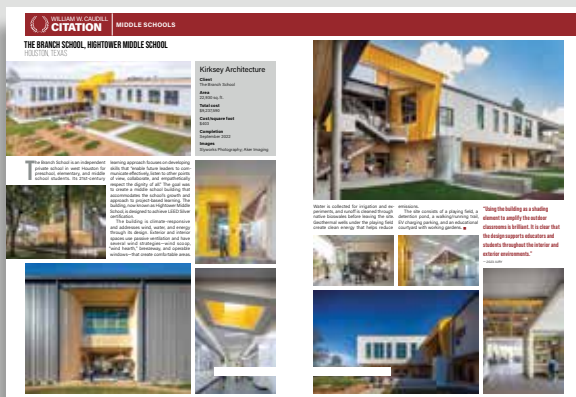

"The use of the building as a shading element to amplify the outdoor classrooms is brilliant. The minimalist exterior palette of metal, wood, and concrete is complementing and calming. The spaces created for teaching and collaboration are abundant and it is clear that the design supports educators and students throughout the interior and exterior environments." – 2023 Jury

LOUIS I. KAHN CITATION

Cornell College, Richard and Norma Small Athletic and Wellness Center

■ Kahler Slater

"Strong modern exterior design...A great example of how to blend the traditional feel of a college building with a modern sleek look. It is aesthetically pleasing with the three elements of glass, stone, and black brick combined." – 2023 Jury

How the PROGRAM WORKS

As an awards program and corresponding sourcebook issue for education administrators, the Architectural Portfolio gives your projects both industry acclaim and national exposure. Enter your best work and upload a portfolio of project information and pictures. A jury of architects and education administrators awards Citations and other Outstanding Designs to be published in the fall 2024 Architectural Portfolio issue of American School & University.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

The following awards are recognized by the jury and published in the Architectural Portfolio issue:

■ Grand Prizes

William W. Caudill Award (Pre-K through 12)
Louis I. Kahn Award (Post-secondary)

■ Category Citations

■ Outstanding Designs

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Entries are accepted for instructional, administrative and service facilities for public, private and parochial schools of all levels, up to and including technical, community/junior colleges, and colleges and universities. New buildings, renovations, additions, restorations, adaptive reuses, landscaping projects and campus master plans are eligible. The entry may reflect an entire educational entity or a specialized facility, such as an auditorium, childcare center, gymnasium, library, healthcare facility, etc. Non-traditional learning facilities are eligible. Entrants may submit projects outside the United States.

Projects must have been completed after January 1, 2019, or under contract for construction on or before September 1, 2024. It must not have been previously published as a completed project in AS&U's Architectural Portfolio.

OFTEN IMITATED, NEVER EQUALED

First published in 1983, the Architectural Portfolio is the acknowledged "Academy Awards" of school design, putting your project in the company of the best in educational facilities today. The program is published in cooperation with the AIA, and members of the AIA's Committee on Architecture for Education serve along with education administrators on the jury. Ask any administrator and he or she will say that the Architectural Portfolio issue is the premier sourcebook for planning school and university projects.

UNMATCHED EXPOSURE

If selected for publication, you get unmatched exposure for the school/university, client, and firm. The Architectural Portfolio issue reaches a worldwide audience through AS&U subscribers, tens of thousands of additional readers who receive the print edition, viewers of the digital edition of the Architectural Portfolio, bonus circulation to school boards, expanded distribution at industry events, and unlimited exposure on SchoolDesigns.com. Not just a seasonal magazine, show display, or online list of projects—this special issue is part of a multi-media brand devoted to the best in education design and facility planning. See page 5 for details.

ABOUT AMERICAN SCHOOL & UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1928, American School & University is devoted to education facilities and business. The authority for information about the education facilities market, AS&U delivers a combination of exclusive reports, special focuses and how-to articles. Each fall, AS&U publishes the Architectural Portfolio as a special sourcebook issue celebrating outstanding school and university designs. AS&U is more than a magazine — ask us for more information on who sees our print issues, websites, e-newsletters, and more.

HOW TO ENTER

1 COMPLETE ENTRY FORM — Due by June 14
Enter online at SchoolDesigns.com, or complete and email the attached entry form for each project you wish to enter. Upon receipt of your entry, you will receive instructions for uploading your submission materials.

2 SELECT YOUR PAGE LAYOUT
When you enter the Architectural Portfolio, you choose how many pages you want dedicated to your project if you are published in this fall issue of AS&U. Additional pages let you include a quote you provide from the school, more text, additional or bigger photos, and allow readers to see more aspects of the design - plus double the photos in the SchoolDesigns.com gallery. See the Publication Fee information below for multi-page discounts.

JUDGING

The AIA's Committee on Architecture for Education selects architects to serve alongside school and university administrators on the Architectural Portfolio jury. The jury begins the judging process by determining the criteria they will use to evaluate that year's entries. They then carefully evaluate the submissions in each entry category and select projects for publication in the Architectural Portfolio issue: Two Grand Prizes, Category Citations and Outstanding Designs.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How is the Architectural Portfolio used?

Education facility professionals who receive American School & University design issues report that they have used them for the following:²

- To find an architect or view their work
- To learn about the latest innovations in education design
- To get ideas for their next project
- To see the latest educational facilities built in their region

How is it different than other competitions?

Not just a seasonal magazine, show display, or website, the Architectural Portfolio is part of a multi-media brand devoted to school and university design and facility planning. The audience who sees the Architectural Portfolio is not just a peer group, but your clients and potential clients — decision-makers in the education facilities market.

Is the Architectural Portfolio for K-12 or post-secondary projects?

AS&U has always been a magazine for administrators at every level, and the Architectural Portfolio showcases both K-12 and post-secondary projects. It is a competition for firms who do either (or both) type of work.

How will this competition benefit my firm?

Use the Architectural Portfolio to build your portfolio of awards, thank your clients, market your firm to new clients, or recognize staff.

I'm not with an architectural firm. Can I still enter?

Schools, builders, and other companies associated with the project are welcome to enter. The competition is judged on the architectural merits of the project, and the entry should be done in conjunction with whomever did the architectural design.
